Whispers behind the Wall

Martin leaves his protective parents' home and comes to Berlin as a law student with high hopes. He finds a tiny, run-down flat in a strange, dark apartment block, from which the previous tenant has disappeared without a trace. Having no luck with social contacts at the university, Martin quickly falls for his mysterious landlady Simone, who lives just next door behind a thin wall. Hoping to find trust and intimacy, Martin loses himself in the house's disturbing world of sex and violence. Deep in the walls, Martin discovers the true horror of his first love.

■ ABOUT THE DIRECTOR

Grzegorz Muskala was born in Poland in 1978. He grew up in Germany. He studied directing at the Polish National Film School in Lodz and at the German Film and Television Academy Berlin (dffb). His short films have been shown at over 250 Festivals worldwide and have gained more than 30 awards, amongst them the German Short Film Prize in Gold in 2008. Whispers behind the Wall is his feature graduation film.
